

At-One-Ment

Why should the process of becoming one with someone or something have come to denote in English what atonement means today—namely, making amends or reparation for a mistake or sin?

To be “at one” in the sense of to be “in harmony” or “in concord” is an English idiom going back at least to the late 13 century, and “to at-one” as a transitive verb meaning “to achieve a state of at-oneness, or reconciliation, between two parties.”

In New Testament belief, it is not only man who atones for his sins but God who does so, as well, by sacrificing His son Jesus for mankind's sake. This is the “vicarious atonement” of Christian theology.

“Adam did not obey God, and many people become sinners through him. Christ obeyed God and makes many people right with Himself (Romans 5:19 NLV).”

"Being A Participant In Christ With YOU."

1 Cor. 9:19,23 & 11 Cor. 5:11a

ACMI is a non-denominational organization committed to the Great Commission of the Lord Jesus Christ. It's founder has spent over 3 decades as a Preacher of the Gospel. The Mission of ACMI is to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ through evangelism, church planting and discipleship throughout the world. It is our goal to "leave no soul behind."

As the Servant Leader of this work for the Lord's Kingdom I want to take this opportunity to invite you become a active participant in the kingdom work of ACMI. The Annual Events of this organization are geared to strengthen and empower believers for the work of the ministry. It is my prayer if you are reading this brochure that you will join us in this session, we are looking forward to serving you. Grace and peace be multiplied unto you, we bless you in the name of the Lord!

Seminars

"Introduction to the Adjutancy"

Taught by

General Overseer David Stevens Sr.

The instructor of this course is the Dean of the School of Adjutancy of Christian Equipping Christians for Outreach Fellowship, Inc. This three evening course will include:

- The Minister's Role in Church/Fellowship Vision.
The great commission is the basis for apostolic work and in this session we will discuss the connection we have with the 12 apostles as they are supported and carried the work of Christ as disciples. This teaching is universal and can speak to any local ministry vision.
- Adjutancy 101: What is an adjutant?
This course is designed to provide an introductory look at the ministry of the adjutancy from a biblical perspective while connecting it with 21st Century ministry.
- Cultivating A Healthy Relationship.
This session is aimed to aid the understanding of both servants and leaders as they engage in this ministerial relationship. To many times we have seen a disconnect between the two that has a negative effect on ministry. This course will also outline some expectations of adjutants and the leaders of adjutants.

"An let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works;

(Hebrews 10:24 ESV)."

I Am Thankful For The Atonement

Christ 's Day of Atonement

Taught by

Bishop Lee Donelson Sr.

The word Atonement is the English speaking term for "Yom Kippur" which means the day to pardon or condone. It means to make amends or to reconcile—become "at one." The observance of this day began in the time of Moses and the Lord commanded the Day of Atonement as a solemn annual observance of the Israelites, to be celebrated forever.

All of the Biblical Holy Days are significant to Christians because they individually symbolize the steps in God's Plan of Salvation for all humanity.

In this seminar we explore the significant of the Day of Atonement and what it means to us as Believers in Christ TODAY!
